WELCOME TO ARIZONA!

Welcome to the 2024 Golf Distributor Meeting and GCSAA Conference and Trade Show!

On behalf of the entire Rain Bird Golf team, I'd like to take this opportunity to welcome you to Arizona! This is a home game and we are excited to show you our Southpoint facilities in Tucson. As we have celebrated our 90th year in 2023, Rain Bird has invested significantly in the development of our facilities in recent years to respond to increased demand and prepare for the future.

The Rain Bird Golf business continues to grow and we enjoyed another successful year in 2023. As we are investing in people, products and facilities, our distributor partners are as well, adding sales and service people and opening new locations to better serve customers. In 2023, we initiated a Golf Distributor Council and have relied on that team to help us with feedback and input so that we continue to improve our alignment and partnership while working towards growing our collective business. Thank you to those distributor partners who continue to invest their time on this initiative.

CirrusPRO™ continues to gain momentum as an industry-leading central control product. The marketing and development teams have produced many new and innovative features during the past 12 months, and with many more to come. We expect many current Rain Bird customers to upgrade to CirrusPRO in 2024. This software upgrade provides a perfect opportunity to re-engage with our existing customers and offer them something new and revolutionary to help them be even more successful.

Recently, we renewed an important relationship with the Pebble Beach Company, now over 25 years. We also signed a new agreement with Pinehurst Resort. We are proud of these two relationships with globally recognized industry leaders, along with many others, and it is exciting to look forward to the future.

Please feel welcome to reach out to any of the Golf team if we can provide assistance this week. As always, have a great show and good selling!
